

Essential Management Skills Certificate

Essential Management Skills Certificate

If you have attended our 2 Day Essential Management Skills workshop at any of our Training Centres in Coventry, Heathrow, Manchester or Central London then you are now eligible to take an online assessment in order to receive a formally accredited Essential Management Skills Certificate.

The Essential Management Skills course is formally accredited by Qualifications Network. Qualifications Network are a recognised awarding organisation who are regulated by Ofqual.

The certificate assessment, which comprises of 25 multiple choice questions covering all areas of essential management skills discussed on the 2-day course, can be taken online from the comfort of your own home or office.

Essential Management Skills Assessment

39:58

Question 1 of 25

Point Value: 10

Which of these statements is correct?

- A manager asks why and what, a leader plans how and when
- A manager and leader should be two different people
- A manager concentrates on looking after people development, a leader directs the tasks people will need to accomplish
- A manager thinks short-term, a leader has a more strategic view

Score so far: 0 points out of 0

SUBMIT

The certificate assessment fee is only £49 + VAT and takes no more than 40 minutes to complete. Upon passing the assessment you will be awarded with The Essential Management Skills Certificate, which is formally accredited by Qualifications Network.

Booking Information

To make a booking please download our booking form and fill out the details and then email it to enquiries@mtdtraining.com. We will then confirm the booking through email and send you your invoice and login details.